HOW YOU ARE ASSESSED

No exam: 100% assignment-based

There is no written examination. Each unit is assessed through written tasks set in OTHM's official Level 7 assignment briefs, applied to your own organisation.

18
assessment tasks across 6 units

Pass / Fail
criterion-referenced grading

Resit
further support and a resubmission if criteria are not yet met

Types of task

Reports · Essays · Management briefing reports · Development plans · Evaluations · Literature review · Research proposal

How assessment works

STEP 1
Brief
Your assessor issues the OTHM brief when you are ready.

STEP 2
Write
You work independently within the set word range, with guidance from your trainer.

STEP 3
Assess
Work is marked against OTHM criteria, with written feedback.

STEP 4
Verify
Internal quality assurance, then external verification by OTHM.

What strong Level 7 work looks like

Critical, not descriptive
Engage with academic debate and critically analyse theoretical models and practical applications.

Original and evidence-based
Draw on journals, standards and organisational evidence, correctly referenced, to reach your own conclusions.

Your own work
All submissions must be authentic and your own; academic integrity is checked at every stage.

Applied to practice
Recommendations are grounded in the real context of your organisation.

Supported throughout. Bramosh Global trainers help you understand each brief, structure your answers, reference correctly and act on feedback before final submission.

AFTER THE DIPLOMA

Progression opportunities

IOSH membership

According to OTHM, successful learners are eligible to apply for the Certified level of IOSH membership, and after Initial Professional Development, for Chartered membership (CMIOSH).

Master's top-up

OTHM states learners can progress to a master's top-up at many UK and overseas universities with advanced standing, usually by completing a 60-credit dissertation. Admission is decided by each university.

Strategic HSE roles

Builds the knowledge expected of HSE directors, heads of HSE and senior consultants.

Research & doctoral study

The Advanced Research Methods unit prepares you for dissertation and applied research.

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Frequently asked questions

Who awards the qualification?

OTHM Qualifications, UK, an Ofqual-recognised awarding organisation. Bramosh Global is the OTHM Approved Centre (No. DC2501906) approved to deliver this Diploma online.

Is it a master's degree?

No. It is a regulated qualification at RQF Level 7, the same level as a master's degree. Many universities offer a master's top-up, usually a 60-credit dissertation.

Is there an exam?

No. All 6 units are assessed through written assignments set in OTHM's official briefs.

Can I become Chartered (CMIOSH)?

OTHM states learners can apply for IOSH membership and, after Initial Professional Development, CMIOSH. IOSH makes the decision.

How long does it take?

Typically 4–6 months with Bramosh Global, depending on your pace and timely submissions.

How is my certificate verified?

Through the QR code on the OTHM certificate, OTHM's verification service and the Ofqual register.

Do I need the Level 6 Diploma first?

You need a Level 6 qualification, an honours degree (2.2) with relevant experience, or substantial professional experience assessed case by case.

Can I study while working?

Yes. Classes are live online and recorded on our LMS, so you can study around your work schedule from any country.

What are the fees?

Fees, intake dates and instalment options are shared on enquiry with the admission form.

How do I pay?

Payment details are provided with your invoice after your admission is confirmed.
